Newsletter Evidences	PRE-PLACEMENT WORKSHOP "How much better to get wisdom than gold, to get insight rather than silver" An amazing conference conducted on job placement, on 17-03-2018 in our college; kindled our thoughts and perspective of our passion for work. This session has completely replaced our negative thoughts with positive interface of an interview. Mr. Damodaran working for NGO walked through the session. The conference started at 9:00 am and winded up at 4:00. A fascinating personality at attracted all our attention by his friendly nature. In the Crouse of session he covered all major aspects relating to interviews and placements. He presented live examples that recreated our thoughts and views about job careers. "What job available is not what one person always need". This was an eye opener for us that mean one has to find jobs according to his or her personal interest and value but if one with wrong presumptuous ideas, interest would fail getting into a disastrous job. If he still hasn't released his wrong choice in life he would end up believing himself to be a fool. His transparent thoughts and views were so appealing, one such aspects about open ended questions and close ended question was elaborated. This has prepared us and cultivated us as a person to face any tough questions that would come cross our way. He stressed about the importance of communication and conveying any thoughts or expression to be more precise. So, good communication is one of the vital forces that enable a person to work more efficient in an organization. Certain pros and cons were listed based on students communication and advised as a feedback them. This has influenced our character and changed us as person. Team leader's qualities and characteristic was explained in brief. An activity based on team work was conducted. The task was to make sure the paper rocks made by students, separated as two teams. They were assigned a task to make sure that opponents paper rockets shouldn't land more in number on the other side. Whose ever side had more paper rockets was concluded as loser of the game. This created an atmosphere as a class room of 4th graders, throwing paper rockets at each other. Never the less he concluded even this as a learning experience of how to be team player more than just a team leader. Strategic plans, analytical mind set is required rather than just expressing in words I will be a team leader. Mock interview was conducted to have an insight about the knowledge of students. Finally few tips and guide line was informed, how to present a resume? How to present ours self in an interview? This conference really did terminate our fear and moulded us as a better candidate to face interview and aspire our careers. Giving this conference a bird's eye view, it has structured us more organised, efficient, self-reliant, proactive and courageous enough to be "who we really aspire to be"! I thank our principle for giving us such overwhelming experience and fabulous conference, I appreciate our

The theatre group consisted of fifteen artists from across different walks of life which included working professionals to full time theatre artists to students who are ardent about this art form. We also had a live-band performance to end the event. The artists were beset with the response from our students who were an amazing audience.

WORKSHOP ON GROUP DYNAMICS

On July 13th, 2022, a Group dynamics session was organized for the students of Social Work in collaboration with the Indian Social Institute. Fr. Joye James the Director of ISI and team were the resource persons for the program. Group dynamics deals with the attitudes and behavioral patterns of a group. It can be used as a means for problem-solving, teamwork, and to become more innovative and productive as an organization. The concept of group dynamics will also provide you with the strengths, success factors and measures along with other professional tools.

In the beginning of the session a lecture was given to the students on the theme and then activities were conducted. The term 'group dynamics' means the study of forces within a group. Since human beings have an innate desire for belonging to a group, group dynamism is bound to occur. In an organization or in a society, we can see groups, small or large, working for the well-being. The social process by which people interact with one another in small groups can be called group dynamism. A group has certain common objectives & goals. Because of which members are bound together with certain values and culture.

The students were divided into different groups so that everyone had the opportunity to participate in all the activities equally. It has helped the students to support teambuilding and grow team cohesion within the group as well as reach a better understanding about what makes a team and how it functions. The students actively participated in the session and have come to the understanding that more can be accomplished with groups than can be achieved by individuals alone, but to be productive a group must remain focused and healthy.
